Further to our post last week more extensive Changes in schedule have become essential in order to protect the health and safety of our customers and our staff and moreover to ensure appropriate enthusiastic bidding on items that are to be offered in our sales.

We have moved our selected fine art auction date back further now provisionally to be held on the 23rd-25th April. As of 24th March 2020 we are also making the following immediate changes:

As from Tuesday 24th of March the saleroom will be CLOSED completely to the public this will be until such time as Government and W.H.O. advice changes.

Our staff are furloughed in accordance with government advice. We therefore will not be available via telephone. So please email us if you need to make contact- I will be answering all emails myself so please do be patient.

Rest assured that JS Fine Art are going to maintain our leading presence in the auction world and with your understanding and support during these difficult and completely unprecedented times, we will be back to normal as soon as possible.

I thank you all for your time in reading this through and I wish you all to stay safe, in good health, and good spirits. Perhaps this is a good time to see if you have any priceless gems in your attics ready to sell when we re-open?
